Ceremonies for Sacred Living

Ceremonies for Sacred Living

Building bridges from where you are to what you envision

Why do ceremonies?

Our culture already practices ceremony and ritual in the form of birthdays, holidays, anniversaries, graduations, and funerals to name a few. We do this to mark and honor an event that is meaningful to us. Ceremonies for Sacred Living enables you to refresh your existing traditions, along with assisting you to honor those transitions for which our culture does not yet have a form.

Ritual and ceremony help us to bring the Sacred into everyday living, as we take time to connect with Spirit. Through ritual we honor and initiate changes in our lives. We can realize our place in the web of life, receive assistance, be heard, be healed and be empowered. Ritual can bring clarity and focus into a chaotic time. For families and other groups, ceremonies can have a deeply unifying effect, creating common ground upon which to build the future. Ritual can enable children to have a real life tool to use in their lives as they grow. Ritual can enable you to reclaim traditions that have gone “flat,” or establish a new tradition altogether. Together, our imaginations are unlimited!

Who we are:

We are a service developed through All Seasons Chalice, a trans-faith community church. We have been specifically trained in creating ceremony and ritual through the 3 year Path of the Ceremonial Arts program (PCA) offered by All Seasons Chalice at The StarHouse in Boulder, Colorado. We are dedicated to Spirit.

The mission statement of All Seasons Chalice is “Providing sacred ground for spiritual and ceremonial practice based on love of the Divine, honor for all beings, earth stewardship, and seasonal and celestial community celebrations.”

The Path of the Ceremonial Arts program teaches women to find the authentic self in relation to ritual, and develop tools as a facilitator of ritual and ceremony from beginning to end. PCA has trained us to:

- ◆ define a ritual need
- ◆ prepare appropriately through setting intention and creating a safe space
- ◆ enact ritual with authentic presence
- ◆ guide ritual to completion
- ◆ follow up appropriately

We believe:

- ◆ every moment and every being is Sacred.
- ◆ in each person’s ability to access the Divine.
- ◆ ritual and ceremony can enhance this ability, bringing one fully present into the subtleties of life’s transitions.

Ceremonies for Sacred Living

All of our ceremonialists are graduates of the three-year program, The Path of the Ceremonial Arts, at The StarHouse. Each of these women incorporates ritual in their daily lives, performs public ceremonies, and helps others experience the value of ritual and ceremony. These ceremonialists are the founding members of The Priestess Circle, a group of women committed to offering ritual to the community and serving All Seasons Chalice.

Our Ceremonialists

 Kate Carbone is a mystic traveler whose pursuit of truth and beauty has led her to explore many traditions. Over a decade of work in the hospital setting as a Respiratory Therapist has given her the opportunity to help people breathe through life passages from birth to death, joy to grief. Kate facilitates and advises the Women's Programs at StarHouse. These experiences have led her to the deep belief that each moment we are given is Sacred.

 Candice Knight, MA, is a life long learner and educator of children, teachers and parents. She has incorporated meaningful daily ritual into the lives of families and school curriculums. Creating stimulating, safe environments for all to learn and communicate is her gift. Candice is a facilitator of The Path of Ceremonial Arts at the StarHouse and coordinates the new moon celebrations for women. In conjunction with this Candice uses essential oils as a tool for healing and opening to the present moment.

 JJ Booksh, CMT is a Healer, Teacher, and Dancer with a great respect for the Divine. She is a facilitator of the Journey of the Feminine program and The Path of Ceremonial Arts at The StarHouse. JJ has a healing Massage Therapy and Reiki practice in Lyons, CO where she enjoys working with people one on one. JJ is an aerial dancer dedicating her art to the Sacred Marriage, which is the emergence of the Divine Feminine within each of us meeting our Divine Masculine in balance.

 Sally Nurney, BFA, Artist, Tarot Reader, Astrologer, Ceremonialist. It is her deep pleasure to nurture your glimmers of images into full-blown ritual that brings the Sacred into your life in an authentic and fulfilling way. She believes our connection to the Divine is only a quiet moment away.

 Circe Moss, CMT brings 20 years of theatre, dance, and voice experience into community ritual. She is a clown and a mythic storyteller, and incorporates the spirit of High Play into her ceremonies. Circe's vow of "I Serve and Protect Water" has led her to promote Water Stewardship in the community through educational Water Salons and political activism. Circe is a facilitator of the Journey of the Feminine program for women at The StarHouse.

Ceremonies for Sacred Living

What we offer:

It is our intention to bring meaningful ritual into all of life's transitional moments, honoring the celebrations and challenges of the individual, community, family and Spirit. We provide a starting point in the form of "templates" for the type of ritual to be created, and then customize the ritual with you. You are an equal partner in this creation; we provide experience and support for your ritual dream and vision. No matter what your particular religious or spiritual beliefs, we can help you to incorporate them into your ceremony to the depth you choose. Use our space at The StarHouse or your Sacred space, wherever that may be.

Ceremonies begin at $150 for a 90 minute ceremony --this includes 1-10 participants with one Ceremonialist . Please call us so we may tailor a quote for you that meets your ceremonial needs.
